TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Host physician is responsible to ensure that the locum physician is competent before the assignment is confirmed, based on Health Authority privileging and vetting/checking references and/or previous locum assignments. The Locums for Rural BC office is a non-regulatory body and is not sanctioned to adjudicate on decisions (i.e. performance, behaviour). As such, it is the host physician's duty to report any complaints or issues to the College of Physicians and Surgeons of BC.

HOST PHYSICIAN – I AGREE TO:

- Reimburse those services not covered by Medical Services Plan (i.e., private, ICBC, WCB and Reciprocal billings) directly to the locum less the amount recovered for overhead prior to the locum leaving the locum assignment.
- Submit claims within two weeks of the end date of the locum assignment.
- Provide the locum with a detailed reconciliation of claims submitted.
- If necessary, establish hospital privileges on behalf of the locum physician.
- For office-based locum assignments, accept 40 percent of paid claims when locum is providing office-based services for the host physician.
- Ensure that the locum receives the medical on-call payments from the health authority / host physician.
- Not bill the Medical Services Plan while the locum is providing service on behalf of the host physician.
- Provide the locum with detailed information on the care and treatment of hospital patients or those patients requiring special treatment.
- In C + D communities, assist with providing reasonable accommodation, which shall include clean and private quarters, reasonably furnished, cooking facilities, TV, and private phone, and provide a vehicle if the locum does not have transportation.

DO YOU NEED A SPECIALIST LOCUM?

Do you need a reliable qualified locum so you can take time off for a vacation, a break from on-call duties or for continuing medical education? The Rural Specialist Locum Program (RSLP) can help!

You may be eligible for the Rural Specialist Locum Program (RSLP) if you live and practice in a community with fewer than five (5) specialists in the following specialties:

- Anaesthesia
- General Surgery
- Internal Medicine
- Orthopedics
- Pediatrics
- Obstetrics
- Radiology
- Psychiatry

Your community must be situated greater than 70km from a major medical centre providing those same services. For further details on eligibility, please contact Locums for Rural BC.

ADVANTAGES OF USING THE PROGRAM

- There is no fee for the host physician for using the RSLP.
- You keep forty (40) percent of the Medical Services Plan paid claims to cover your office overhead, except when the locum is providing a hospital-based locum or where an alternative payment arrangement is in place.
- No payment hassles – we pay the locum.
- Our locums have rural training and/or experience.

CRITERIA FOR USING THE PROGRAM

- You must be a specialist or a non-certified specialist with additional training in one the core specialties and eligible to write the qualifying exams, and licensed to practice medicine in British Columbia.
- Be a member in good standing with the Canadian Medical Protective Association.
- Reside and practice, on a full-time basis, in an eligible community while maintaining hospital privileges in your community.
- Royal College of Physicians & Surgeons of Canada Certification (not applicable to foreign trained physicians).
- Enrolled in the Medical Services Plan.

HOW OFTEN CAN I USE THE PROGRAM?

- Each rural specialist meeting the criteria can request up to five 35 days of locum services per year (each request must be for a minimum of two (2) days).

CLAIMS SUBMISSION AND PAYMENT PROCESS

OFFICE-BASED SERVICES

- A Rural Assignment of Payment form must be completed by the specialist locum (please do not submit a regular assignment form), and faxed to the attention of Locums for Rural BC office.
- Claims must be submitted using the host physician payment number and the locum physician Medical Services Plan (MSP) practitioner number.
- The host physician is expected to submit both office based and hospital based claims within 2 weeks of the end date of the locum assignment and with 2 weeks of the refusal date.
- The host physician must provide the locum with a detailed reconciliation of claims submitted.
- The locum receives the greater amount of sixty (60) percent of paid claims or $1,500 per day.
- The host physician receives forty (40) percent of paid claims and payment will be made by MSP on the regular payment dates. Where an alternative payment arrangement is in place, no FFS is billed.
- The host physician must make payment directly to the locum for 60% of the paid third party services i.e. private, ICBC, WCB and reciprocal billings.

HOSPITAL-BASED SERVICES

- Locums providing hospital-based locum services, as required by the HA, will receive the greater amount of $1,500 per day or one hundred (100) percent of paid claims, with top-ups on a quarterly basis.
- Specialist locums under the RSLP will be assigned an additional payment number which will only be used for locum assignments when the locum is only covering the host physicians' hospital-based assignments.
- Host physicians do not receive forty (40) percent of paid claims when the locum is only covering the host physician's hospital-based assignments.

OFFICE-BASED AND ON-CALL AVAILABILITY SERVICES:

- Locums for Rural BC will pay the locum's daily rate, travel expenses and travel time honorarium. The HA will pay accommodation cost while in the community on locum assignment in 'C' and 'D' communities only.
- The locum receives the applicable Medical On-Call Availability Program (MOCAP) payment from the HA / host physician.
